Precious Holy Father, Master of all; we worship you. As we close this season of Lent with the Easter celebration of your resurrection, may we have been drawn closer to you. May we have rediscovered the love we have for our families. May we have learned new lessons in treating each other with dignity and respect. May we have reached out and leaned on you more fully. May we have learned and relearned the sacrifice and glorious triumph of the cross. May our lives be rededicated to serving you in this place. Thank you for making us a part of your perfect plan. We honor and glorify you. AMEN

FEAST OF THE PASCHAL LAMB

The Feast of the Paschal Lamb commemorates both Easter and Passover. However, the brethren of the Chapter of Rose Croix hold the Feast of the Paschal Lamb, or the Mystic Banquet, at this time of year as a memorial service. It is an opportunity to honor brethren who have passed and, most importantly, to strengthen and celebrate our brotherly ties. The Feast of the Paschal Lamb reminds Scottish Rite Masons that the soul is immortal and the bonds of fraternal love cannot be severed by the passing of time.

By honoring those who have lived a life of service as Masons, we recall that it may be fraught with personal sacrifice, and requires dedication to the principles Freemasons espouse.
