On Wednesday, December 27, a multi-Lodge Feast of St. John will be held at Angola Lodge #236. Everyone will gather at 6p, dinner will be at 6:30, with Table Lodge to follow. Masons from any Lodge are invited to attend.

In the early days of Masonry, the Lodges would sometimes meet in taverns and make toasts to Masonry and the leaders of the craft. It is now done in a similar assembly in the Lodge's dining room. The evening will include a festive meal, toast made to honor the days of old and the current fraternity, the Grand Lodge, our Blue Lodges, and more. To keep the Masonic concepts alive and well, we honor those men of old, as well as today's leaders.

My Father’s Masonic Journey

My name is Keely Roe, and I am your Miss Indiana Job’s Daughter for the 2023-2024 term.

I recently interviewed my father, Terrence Roe, 33º, about his involvement with the Masonic Youth organizations of Indiana. My dad is a Past Master of Warsaw Lodge #73, Past Commander-in-Chief of the Fort Wayne Consistory, and an advisor of John Chapman DeMolay Chapter in Warsaw. He is also a member of the Mizpah Shrine and Warsaw Chapter #88, Order of Eastern Star. He was awarded the 2021 Scottish Rite Youth Advisor of the Year and 2023 Adult Youth Leadership Award from the Indiana Grand Council of Cryptic Masons for his involvement with DeMolay and Job’s Daughters.

My dad started his Masonic career in 1984 as a charter member of Crimson Shield DeMolay Chapter in Kentucky. As a member, he “enjoyed getting to know people from around the state” at dances, regional meetings, and Conclave. He met many friends and mentors through DeMolay, many of whom he is close with today. DeMolay taught him several life lessons and skills, from learning how to tie a tie to public speaking. His career in DeMolay included a term as a State Officer after serving his chapter as Master Councilor. He was also presented with the Degree of Chevalier.

After being a member in his youth, my dad decided to join Freemasonry. Interestingly, his father was not a member. He really had no connection to Masonry other than DeMolay, but because “some of the advisors that we had in DeMolay were members of [Lodge]...I wanted to be a part of what they were a part of.” He joined Polar Star Lodge #363 in 1990. He transferred to Warsaw Lodge #73 in 2013.

My brother, Griffin, and I are involved in Masonic Youth organizations. I am a member of Job’s Daughters Bethel 8 in Fort Wayne, and my brother is a member of John Chapman DeMolay Chapter in Warsaw. The influence to join these organizations came from my father. “I remember what an impact DeMolay had on me,” he said. “Having a common bond with other people my age” was very important. Learning how to “speak in public, conduct [yourself] in groups, and collaborative work in meetings” were skills that he wanted us to learn. Masonic Youth organizations were created for that purpose.

The influence of my father’s support has given me the confidence and drive to be an active part of Job’s Daughters. I’m sure my brother would say the same thing about DeMolay. My dad said that “knowing how to set goals and achieve them has been a real important part” of our Masonic Youth experience. Just like when he was a member, we have learned ritual, traveled around the state, and made connections. “You have been exposed to people I respect as Masons...You have had some exposure to some really good people and have good examples to look up to.” On a personal note, being involved in Job’s gave me an opportunity to grow closer with my dad. It gave us something to bond over. Our entire household is involved in at least one organization, which has given us something unique and special to enjoy together.

My dad’s professional career is in education. With this in mind, he stated that “the youth of today need to learn to work collaboratively. They need to be exposed to the precepts of DeMolay and the ideals of Job’s and Rainbow.” All three of our organizations strive to teach citizenship, leadership, love and respect for parents, service, spirituality, and many more attributes that are necessary to be a well-rounded citizen. He also stated that the youth of today should have the opportunity to “get to know the quality of people that are in Freemasonry and the Masonic organizations.” “It’s good for all the youth to have some connections [to] people who will look out for them, provide examples, and get [them] prepared for what [their] adult lives could be.”

We would love for you to invite your children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, neighbors, or any other youth in your life to join one of our three organizations. Even if they are involved in other organizations or activities, the teaching of Masonic Youth is the icing on the cake. We encourage them to get involved even if they can’t attend every meeting or event. The lessons and tenets of Freemasonry are important to the welfare of our communities, and it starts with our youth. I encourage you to give your youth the opportunity to join your legacy of Masonry and benefit from our teachings.

Please reach out to the following people for more information about Masonic Youth in Indiana!
