Sickness & Distress:

Ishmael Doc Ison, PGM was in the Hospital from last Friday till Wed. He had "G.I. Bleeding" - almost needed surgery but - thankfully - he stopped bleeding and now is on a special diet to let the G.I. tract rest. It was caused by medications - including Plavix. His blood count is very low as well as energy, etc. He is strongly hoping to make it to Grand Lodge. He is supposed to receive his 50 yr. pin from Rick Elman during Gr. Lodge on the 18th. If you do not see him in Gr. Lodge, I will notify you as to why. Talk to the good Lord to "build him up" again. Mary Jo

Dear SK Larry: Just got word that Richmond Commandery's EC, David C Sparks, will get left knee replacement surgery tomorrow at Dayton VA Hospital. He has been on crutches since early January, with infection in knee joint. This surgery is to replace a previous surgery which went bad on him. I ask that all SKs keep Dave in their prayers. Byron

I just talked to Pete Zivanovich and he informed me that Lady Lee was in the hospital. She had been sick for the past several months. The doctors have discovered a tumor between her skull and backbone. They would not do a biopsy because it might paralyze her. They are going to treat her with radiation in hopes to shrink it. She has not been able to walk or eat much. Please keep Lee and Pete in your prayers.

Update to Jim Baumgardner's status. After his 4th day of treatment he is doing much better. He possible will be released from Methodist on Saturday and I will be taking him to JMH. He will go through rehab at Todd

Aikens until he is stable enough to be taken back to Methodist for his By-Pass surgery. Thanks to everyone for the calls, love, and prayers. Grandpa appreciates it all. Grant Black

Larry Kaminsky: I'm feeling much better after the surgery but get tired very easy. I have to force myself to do about anything. Hopefully, this is a short term recovery thing. I saw 3 of my 4 doctors this past week and they say everything is going well. All my test numbers are in the correct range and the medicine does not seem to be affecting my liver. I'm thankful for all the cards, letters and calls wishing me well. It's nice to know you have such a large supportive family. Larry V.

Passing of Loyd Leo Chance, Honorary Grand Commander, Texas; Grand Commander Year: 1999 – 2000; Birth Date: September 2, 1932; Death Date: May 27, 2011. A tremendous loss for our masonry occurs when a companion releases his mortal coil and enters that house not made with hands. It is with great sadness that we issue the following report. Obituary: <http://www.knightstemplar.org/TheChapel.html> Longtime Dallas resident and Masonic Leader, born September 2, 1932, in Sulphur Springs, Texas, to L. U. and Velma Chance, Loyd Chance passed away May 27, 2011 at his home in Dallas at age 78. While in high school he joined the United States Army, and served in the Korean conflict, receiving the Bronze Star. After being Honorably Discharged in 1953 he returned to Dallas and entered the trucking business. Loyd was generous with his time and talents, supporting many church and community activities, especially the Masonic Fraternity. He served in many leadership positions, was honored as a 50 year member in all of the York Rite bodies, and remained an active and enthusiastic member until his death. His faithful service included Worshipful Master of Metropolitan Lodge #1182, and District Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Texas in 2004; Past High Priest of Dallas Chapter #47, Royal Arch Masons, and in 2000, District Deputy Grand High Priest; Past Thrice Illustrious Master of Dallas Council #18, Royal & Select Masters, and Treasurer 1997-2010 in both Chapter and Council; Commander of Dallas Commandery #6, Knights Templar in 1972 and 1986; Grand Recorder of the Grand Commandery of Texas from 1987 to 2011; elected Honorary Past Grand Commander in 2003, and Grand Recorder Emeritus in 2011. His patriotic and charitable involvements included serving as President of Audie Murphy Chapter #112, National Sojourners; Commander of Goliad Camp, Heroes of '76; Secretary-Treasurer of L. A. Pires Charitable Foundation for the past 10 years, and Executive Director of the Dallas Masonic Service Bureau from 2004-2007. Loyd was a member of many honorary and invitational Masonic Bodies, including the York Rite College serving as Governor, and then as Grand Governor of Texas from 2006-2010; Grand Treasurer of St. Thomas of Acon; Preceptor of the Texas Order of Knights Preceptor; Preceptor of Holy Royal Arch Knight Templar Priests; Sovereign Master of the Allie d Masonic Degrees; member of the Red Cross of Constantine, Knight Masons, and the Royal Order of Scotland. A longtime member of the Dallas Scottish Rite, in 2003 he was made a Knight Commander of the Court of Honor, and in 2006, he served as Master of Kadosh for Dallas Consistory. Never seeking accolades or the limelight, Loyd received many of the highest honors in Freemasonry, including Knight Commander of the Temple, DeMolay Legion of Honor, Knight York Cross of Honor, and in March 2011, at a special ceremony in the Dallas Scottish Rite Cathedral, he received both the Dallas Scottish Rite Meritorious Service Award, and the Service Award of the Sovereign Grand York Rite College of North America.
