Sickness & Distress:

Joe Friend, GPE: I have just learned that Joe Friend has been told he has cancer. He has a lump on his arm and is expected to have surgery this week. I have not been told the day as yet.

Update 3/3: Joe Friend is in the Hospital with pneumonia per e-mail I got this morning from a S.K. in Greensburg.

Update 4/2: Carroll Joe Friend is back in the hospital. He had cancer surgery last week and was in the hospital for four days. He is back in because of excessive bleeding. Wilma says, "They took the staples out of Joes arm today. Speaking of something that will freak you out, it looks like someone took a big bite out of his arm." They found a big growth in left arm and removed it. They found out it was MERKEL cell cancer. Now they found microscopic cancer in his lymph glands. Please keep Joe in your thoughts and prayers.

Alan Kaufman, PGHP: Received a phone call yesterday from Alan Kaufman {Logansport area} ~ he is going into the hospital for major back surgery. St. E's Hospital in Lafayette. Advised me that he couldn't attend the MEGHP Class of Royal Arch Masonry at Noblesville on Saturday, Feb. 9th, but hoped to be up & around in time to attend the Grand Master's Class in April. Said he would also have to miss at tri-state festival. I don't know Alan very well but do know that he has long been involved with York Rite... Prayers for successful back surgery I'm sure would be appreciated.

Update 3/3: I went into the hospital February 7th for spinal surgery; I was able to leave the house this weekend. I still have four weeks of P.T. I was able to attend church today and I am looking forward to attending Tipton # 33 F&AM Wednesday the 6th and Royal Center # 585 F&AM the 7th. I am feeling better than I have in several years. I wish to thank all the Bro., Companions, and Sir Knights for all of the Prayers and Blessing I have received during this time! Fraternally Yours, Alan W Kaufman PGHP

Phoenix Bridegroom had her regular 4 week clinic visit today, and she is doing great! All of her labs & blood counts were perfect. Her doctor at Memorial was thrilled to see her feeling so good & getting so strong. We talked about how much difference 1 year has made, because last year Feb. & March were awful horrible times for us. Dr. Morrison was tearing up today when she told me that she will never forget a morning last year, when I told her that I had spent an entire night thinking about unhooking Phoenix from every machine & running away...and never letting another nurse or doc touch her again. Obviously I pulled it together, & thank God, because look at this girl go! She has been cleared to add another hour to her school day, & she is thrilled that she will be eating lunch with her friends, instead of me, every day, lol. Another awesome first for us is that she will be getting her first report card in a week or so. It makes me so happy to bring this good news to you all, & again I thank you for all the love & prayers that you send to Phoenix and our family. Happy spring break & Easter weekend to you all!

Ed Sebring: First thing this morning, I tripped over a lamp cord on my way to the bathroom and fell full-length. I tell you, it was a real feat getting up. There don't seem to be any impact injuries per se, but it aggravated existing weaknesses. My lower back and right leg are in great pain and I'm not going anywhere. I've already called in to stay home from work. Sorry, Ed Sebring, KCT, GPE

Update: My back and legs are much better after my Monday-morning trip and fall, and I plan on being back at work Wednesday morning. Ed Sebring

Dwight E. Lanman, Jr., KCT, PGC: I just wanted to let you know that I will off the computer until further notice. I have a medical problem. I have to see doctor Monday to determine if I have to have surgery on my left knee. I fell last Monday and broke my knee cap on my left knee. I also bruised ribs on my left side. I will be able to answer phone while lying down. I'm not even supposed to be sitting up now. Dwight

Update on Dwight: Just to let everyone know that I went to the doctor today and was told that the old knee is healing nicely however, I do have to keep wearing the splint during the day. I can, however remove it when I go to bed. It was getting very tiring sleeping in the lift chair with it on, not being able to turn and lay on my side. I guess the good Lord was looking after me in letting me heal the way it has. I was very lucky. I do have to wear the splint for at least another month or so and use the walker. I guess after that I will be able to walk with a cane or two. I was dreading to have to have a metal plate put in. I guess that is a lot better than not being able to walk at all. I want to thank all who called and wished me well in healing. I don't know if I will be able to attend the Grand Conclave or not. I have not missed one since 1980 and would sure hate to miss this one. Dwight E. Lanman, Jr., KCT, PGC

Willa Fay Roberts: Fay came down with pneumonia the week prior to leaving on the Easter trip and was unable to attend. Bobby also was getting sick and worried that he too was getting pneumonia. Both are home and resting.

“It's easy to have faith in yourself and have discipline when you're a winner, when you're number one. What you got to have is faith and discipline when you're not a winner.”— Vince Lombardi

Indiana Deaths:

The South Bend Scottish Rite will be hosting an Open House for new prospective Scottish Rite Members on Wed, April 27th from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM at the South Bend Scottish Rite. We will be mailing out invitation to all new master masons raised in the last 24 months in our local blue lodges. We will be mailing out an invitation letter to all the lodges in South Bend Valley promoting the open house night at the valley. The Green Dragon Guild will provide refreshments and we will order Pizza. We will hold a Fraternity hour after the Scottish Rite presentation and tour of the building. Agenda for the evening is as follows: 7:00 PM: Welcome to the Scottish Rite and an overview of Scottish Rite Masonry (Who we are; What we do; Membership Benefits; 200th Anniversary; ICE: What's in it for you?)

7:20 PM Tour of the Building Cathedral, Robing Room, Ball Room/Dining Room, Learning Center, Lodge Room, 2nd Floor, 3rd Floor (We will need Members to present in these areas.) We present an overview of Scottish Rite Masonry and our events in the building

8:10 PM Explanation of the Degrees, Guilds and Groups. How to get involved. Membership Process and filling out of Petitions

8:25 PM Refreshments, Pizza, Fellowship, Scottish Rite DVD, and petitions in Parlor.

We need the assistance of our members to bring in candidates from their Lodges for the Open House. This gives us a good event to bring prospective new members into the Valley, make a great first impression and build some good relationships. RSVP to George Burkley at 574-903-9400 or gburkley@comcast.net.

Think about it:

DESIGN OF FREEMASONRY by William "Ray" Fischer

The design of Freemasonry is neither for charity nor cultivation of society. Though noble they are incidental to the organization. We must search for truth. Thus, in that search we will find the unity of God and the immortality of the soul.

The degrees of initiation represent the various stages through which the human mind passes. This will show them many difficulties that men must encounter in their progress from ignorance to truth.

As an Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft, and Master Mason you searched for light. Then when you think you have it, you find out that it has been lost and you must search on. Therefore, the quest for light continues throughout your life. Then it is found in the second Temple of the Eternal Life.

Someone You Should Know

Father Matthew Cowden, is a Brother and Episcopal Priest, Rector of St. Michael and All Angels, 53720 N Ironwood, South Bend. He wrote the hymnal text set to Pleyl's hymn that we use in the 3rd Degree, 2nd section.

At Trinity Episcopal Church, Fort Wayne, we use this as the opening hymn in our St. John the Baptist, Holy Eucharist in June annually in which the Grand Master of Masons in Indiana has participated in the last six of seven recent services. In fact the entire service including our priest, deacon and lesson readers and ushers are church members and Masons.

Saint Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church is a lively, diverse and historic congregation in the Episcopal Diocese of Northern Indiana. We worship in a variety of musical styles, our Sunday School Study classes for adults and kids are robust, and our fellowship with one another in Christ is rich. Stepping through our doors you will find Saint Michael's is a place of authentic welcome, where Christ is encountered and lives are transformed. James S. De Mond, KCT, KGC, PDC.

Grand Session April 12, 13 2013

Amish Acres Nappanee, IN

Jeffrey M Jordan, MEGHP

Message from MEGHP

You and your family are invited to beautiful Amish Acres in Nappanee Indiana for the 2013 Grand Chapter Royal Arch Masons Annual Session.

Please come prepared to spend time helping your Grand Chapter to prepare for the next and future years by voting on legislation, hearing the current state of the Chapters in Indiana, and listening to future plans to help our individual Chapters grow and spread further Masonic light to our Blue Lodge brethren, and other necessary business.

Our location this year is at Amish Acres in Nappanee. The ladies and your children will have plenty to do in the local area without leaving the grounds. Our meetings will be held in the round barn, and meals will be held in the restaurant. You are able to make your hotel reservations now up to one week before the session.

We are also trying to help manage costs to the companions by accepting credit/debit cards for the meals, the musical, and also for the Anointed High Priest Degree. However, meal payments will not be accepted at Nappanee unless prior arrangements are made.

We look forward to seeing you!

Fraternally Yours,

Jeffrey M Jordan, MEGHP

2013 Easter Sunrise Trip

The Trip this year left for Washington D.C. on Wednesday, March 27, 2013 and returned on March 31st. Along the way we stopped at the Hartstone Pottery Factory in Zanesville, OH, for a tour and lunch then stayed the night in Winchester, VA where, in the morning, we visited the Winchester Masonic Temple and the Old Courthouse Civil War Museum. We then stopped at the Udvar-Hazy Air and Space Smithsonian Museum in Chantilly, VA and then went on to the Hyatt Regency in Crystal Springs, VA where we stayed for the remainder of the trip. We visited the Museum of the U.S. Marine Corps on Friday and rested in the afternoon followed by a pizza party and a bus illumination tour of DC in the evening. On Saturday morning we laid a wreath on the Tomb of the Unknowns and tour the Capital Building in the afternoon followed by the Grand Encampment Banquet in the evening. Easter Sunday we participated in the Easter Sunrise Service at the George Washington Masonic Memorial and completed our trip on the bus back to Indianapolis. I am happy to say that we had thirty eight on the bus and two others met us in Washington D.C. James Bolinger, GCG Chairman

PS: Editorial Comment: Jim and Debbie did a fantastic job of making sure everything was just dandy! Congratulations on a fine trip!
