Sickness & Distress:

WM George Quigley of Franklin 107 and Franklin OES: Please keep up in your prayers for healing. Fraternally, Scott Graham PM 107: I'm not sure if any of the Franklin Lodge has had an update on WM George Quigley. He is also an Eastern Star officer. One of our members emailed Mary to get an update on George. Here is what she wrote. Please share with the Franklin Lodge. Let's all keep George in our prayers. Anna Burton, Franklin OES.

It's not good. The surgery itself went well, and they were able to replace the valve and the bypass grafts. The problem is that his lungs are full of fluid, and he can't breathe. They still have him in ICU. He was doing a little better last night, but I just got a call from the nurse saying his chest x-ray looks even worse today. They are taking him down for a CT scan and may end up putting him on a ventilator since he isn't able to breathe well on his own. Dad seems to be getting worse rather than better. He's terrified and is really confused about stuff. The doctor says this is due to medication, but it's scary. He sees bugs on the ceiling and thinks my Mom is alive. Stuff like that. Just really out his head. Right now we are concentrating on trying to get him better, but we already know he will need to go to rehab in the end because he is so bad off. The Masonic Home can't take him because his insurance won't allow him to go there. That also has him upset. The social worker came up yesterday and had him in tears over it. She gave us a list the insurance will cover, so that will eventually be a project for me. I've been so busy that I haven't had the chance to notify anyone outside of family. Would you or Jonny mind letting the Masons know how he is doing? They are probably wondering since I didn't call anyone yet. Mary Ellen Quigley

Virgil Humphrey: Virgil had reconstruction and a few other things done inside his nose that had been broken when he was a kid. He had been having problems with it lately and problems breathing on one side. They worked on his sinuses while they were in there. The procedure took about 2 hours. The Doctor was well pleased with what they did. Virgil is home but will have to sit at a 45* angle for a few days. He is very uncomfortable as all of us would be in that situation. Fraternally, Don Henderson PM--KYCH, Clinton Lodge #54 Secretary, Area 14 Grand Lodge Representative; PROUD TO BE A VETERAN, 508th Military Police Alumni, President

James S. De Mond, KGC, PGC, PDC: All I know for now is that Jim De Mond just had surgery to get blood circulation back in his leg. I will follow with details as I receive them.

“Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around.” — Leo Buscaglia

Indiana Deaths:

William H. Rich: The services for Sir Knight William H. Rich will be Monday Feb 17 at Genda Funeral Home, 608 N Main St, Frankfort IN. Viewing will be from 3 to 7 p.m. with a Masonic Service at 6:30 p.m., and a Knights Templar memorial will follow. We will have a Templar Guard for SK Bill and for anyone interested in coming to stand in with us, please bring your uniform, sword, chapeau, etc., and we will fit you into the rotation. We hope to have 20, 30 or more Knights Templar present so that we can have a lot of Bill's friends involved in his service. We plan to stand watch on ten minute intervals and will surely be appreciated for the help if you able to do so. Services will be on Tuesday morning at 10:00 a.m. with burial to follow at Green lawn Cemetery at the south edge of Frankfort. Thank you in advance for your help. Virgil G. Humphrey, PC -Treas.

Gracie Williams, wife of PGC R. Frank Williams: It is with a sad heart that I am writing to inform you that Gracie Williams, wife of PGC R. Frank Williams, passed away Thursday morning at River Oaks Health Campus in Princeton, IN. Mother was 90 years old but was still very sharp mentally although she was confined to a wheelchair. I'm attaching a poem she wrote several months ago to be opened at her death. A celebration of her life will be held on Sunday, February 23 at 3:00 p.m. with visitation preceding the service from 1-3 at Enon General Baptist Church, Princeton, IN. Gracie and Frank would have celebrated their 67 wedding anniversary this June. Please keep Dad in your prayers as we know he will miss her terribly. Also surviving are three daughters, Marjan LaGrange, Chris Wallace, and Patty (Tom) Sollman; six grandchildren: Ben Wallace, Rebecca Lamb, Elizabeth Muster, Amanda LaGrange, Robert and Elise Sollman; and three great-grandchildren Abigail, Michael and Kellen Wallace. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested any donations be made to Enon General Baptist Church, Hwy 41 S., Princeton, IN 47670.

Mother loved the many friends she made while traveling the state with Dad when he served as Grand Commander and later as Representative of the Masonic Home Foundation. Please send any cards or messages to this email or to the address below and I'll read them to Dad. His vision has deteriorated and he finds reading very difficult. Thank you for your continued thoughts and prayers. Sincerely, Marjan Williams LaGrange, 10657 Merimac Dr, Newburgh, IN 47630; 812.490.6799

My Farewell

By Gracie Williams (August 22, 1923-February 20, 2014)

It's been a wonderful life,
But now it's time to go home
And find that rest and peace
And never more have to roam.

The Lord has been so good to me—
More blessings than can be told.
A loving family and friends
That are worth much more than gold.

When I enter the pearly gate
And hear the angels sing,
And God says, "Welcome Home!"
Oh, what joy that will bring.

So you continue to serve Him
And help others to find the way;
So we can be together again
On a glorious reunion day.

Mother wrote this about two months ago but told me not to read it or type it until something happened to her. She was such an amazing woman. I'm so thankful that we were with her when she died. Marjan

Think About It:

GRANDMA'S HANDS

(You'll never look at your hands the same again!)

Grandma, some ninety plus years, sat feebly on the patio bench. She didn't move, just sat with her head down staring at her hands. When I sat down beside her she didn't acknowledge my presence and the longer I sat I wondered if she was OK.

Finally, not really wanting to disturb her but wanting to check on her at the same time, I asked her if she was OK. She raised her head and looked at me and smiled. "Yes, I'm fine, thank you for asking," she said in a strong clear voice.

"I didn't mean to disturb you, grandma, but you were just sitting here staring at your hands and I wanted to make sure you were OK," I explained to her.

"Have you ever looked at your hands," she asked. "I mean really looked at your hands?"

I slowly opened my hands and stared down at them. I turned them over, palms up and then palms down. No, I guess I had never really looked at my hands as I tried to figure out the point she was making. Grandma smiled and related this story:

"Stop and think for a moment about the hands you have, how they have served you well throughout your years. These hands though wrinkled shriveled and weak have been the tools I have used all my life to reach out and grab and embrace life.

"They braced and caught my fall when as a toddler I crashed upon the floor. They put food in my mouth and clothes on my back. As a child, my mother taught me to fold them in prayer. They tied my shoes and pulled on my boots. They held my husband and wiped my tears when he went off to war.

"They have been dirty, scraped and raw, swollen and bent. They were uneasy and clumsy when I tried to hold my newborn son. Decorated with my wedding band they showed the world that I was married and loved someone special. They wrote my letters to him and trembled and shook when I buried my parents and spouse.

"They have held my children and grandchildren, consoled neighbors, and shook in fists of anger when I didn't understand.

They have covered my face, combed my hair, and washed and cleansed the rest of my body. They have been sticky and wet, bent and broken, dried and raw. And to this day when not much of anything else of me works real well these hands hold me up, lay me down, and again continue to fold in prayer.

"These hands are the mark of where I've been and the ruggedness of life but more importantly it will be these hands that God will reach out and take when he leads me home. And with my hands He will lift me to His side and there I will use these hands to touch the face of Christ."

I will never look at my hands the same again. But I remember God reached out and took my grandma's hands and led her home. When my hands are hurt or sore or when I stroke the face of my children and husband I think of grandma. I know she has been stroked and caressed and held by the hands of God.

I, too, want to touch the face of God and feel His hands upon my face. When you receive this, say a prayer for the person who sent it to you and watch God's answer to prayer work in your life. Let's continue praying for one another. Passing this on to anyone you consider a friend will bless you both. Passing this on to one not yet considered a friend is something Christ would do.
