Sickness & Distress:

Phoenix Bridegroom: Battles PreB ALL, original diagnosis 10-24-11 and relapse 10-21-14.

To be clear: Phoenix has relapsed, meaning, her cancer is back.

Update 12/5: Many people have asked me for an update on our favorite 8 year old, so here we go. Hello to you all from Riley Hospital. Phoenix was admitted on Monday, as scheduled, for a week long chemo infusion. We should be on our way home, but as most "best laid plans" go...we are not. Phoenix has had a week full of ups and downs (mostly fever up, blood pressure down) and so we will remain inpatient until she is well. Her team suspects that she has a stomach virus, and it is currently making her miserable. We will stay put until her fever goes away, her pain is under control, and maybe as a bonus she will eat/drink.

Preliminary bone marrow testing has shown that Phoenix has achieved remission, and docs will be re-checking with another BMA in a few weeks. Once we can get discharged from this stay, we will be back for more high dose chemo right before Christmas...after a few weeks of recovery from chemo, (sometime in January) we will be getting pre-stem cell transplant work-ups, and then rollin' into the transplant world.

John and I would like to thank all of you who have sent Phoenix cards and gifts, and I beg your forgiveness for my lack of proper "thank you" cards. The nurses, therapists and doctors have been fantastic and are so proud to have seen their favorite patient on TV & in the latest Riley magazine. We welcome continued prayers for remission, resolving viruses, and comfort from side effects. Thank you all for caring and loving.

Update 12/14: Dear Friends, we had a very scary day yesterday, but I am happy to report that today is so much better. On Thursday evening Phoenix was admitted to Memorial Children's in South Bend for a neutropenic fever. Things were par for the course until yesterday afternoon when John and I witnessed a few neurological "episodes" that scared us beyond words. She was nearly hysterical, said she couldn't see, and wasn't making any sense. With her brain injury history, and her current low platelets, we suspected hemorrhaging or seizure related problems. Phoenix was transported directly to Riley Hospital after CT scan showed no evidence of bleeding or masses on her brain. She has done great since she has been here, and has had no additional scary "episodes". She is scheduled for an MRI today, in order to rule out anything viral in her CNS, but we do not expect to find anything. After all the teams have examined her and consulted, it looks as though she may have experienced a hallucinogenic, paranoid "high" from a drug she was taking for nausea. Needless to say, this drug has been discontinued. We know we will be home real soon. Please keep our sweet girl in your thoughts and prayers. Tammy Donald L. Borchert, GPE: Well after 8 hours in the ER they finally admitted Don to a room. The pain on the hip side was so bad this morning he could barely walk. Had to call an ambulance to take him to Community Hosp. Going to try and control his pain and have an orthopedic doctor look at hip. Please keep him in your prayers. And on my way home I stopped at urgent care and got told I have another kidney stone. Isn't life GRAND! Oh well got to make some lemonade.....

Update 11/30: Don Update: Hello everyone hope everyone had a safe Blessed Thanksgiving! It looks like Don will be coming home Wednesday or Friday. He finishes IV antibiotic Friday, so unless I can give it to him at home it will be Friday. At least that will give him a couple of weeks at home until the next surgery on the 18th. Thanks for all the cards, calls and visits; but most of all the prayers! Mickey.

Update 12/1: Well folks it looks like Don will be coming home Saturday morning. He gets his final antibiotic Friday night. So he'll have almost 2 weeks home before the next surgery on the 18th.

Update 12/1: We brought Don home today, so it was a Great day!

Ishmael D. Ison, Sr., PGM: I have contacted my doctor and they have postponed my hip operation until December 9, 2014. Ish.

Floyd Sendmeyer Update: Dear Friends, I just returned from the hospital--long day because the plastic surgery was delayed until this afternoon because of a couple emergencies that had to be done first. He came through it just fine and is resting comfortably right now. His vitals are good, but he was "asleep" for lack of a better word and not as responsive as he had been before the surgery. He responded to both Amanda (granddaughter) and me with toe wiggles, arm movements, and so forth. The surgery was delayed so long the medical team decided to postpone the extubation until tomorrow, and we hope his lungs will be in better shape and able to work more effectively. The surgery today was an eyelid repair/skin graft which was necessary and successful. I spoke to the critical care doctor, the neurosurgeon, and the plastic surgeon at some point today and they all three had positive remarks. I also got out to Lowe's to have a new set of house keys made so my sister can get into the house to retrieve things for me. It is going to be a long hard ordeal to get him back, but we'll get the job done. Thanks to you all for all your thoughts and prayers, and I appreciate all your efforts and support. Love to you all, Carole

Update 12/28: Floyd was successfully extubated today and is holding his own. His oxygen level is good and he is coughing on his own. He still hasn't opened eyes, but we are hopeful it will happen tomorrow. Today has been a very good day. Carole Brother Jonathan C Spurgeon & his family: I have an urgent request for prayers for our Indianapolis Valley Brother Jonathan C Spurgeon & his family. Jonathan's wife Brandy went into labor last night with the birth of their first child. Her water broke at home and they went Columbus Regional Hospital (CRH). They determined that the baby needed to be delivered immediately by emergency C-section due to the baby being in distress. The hospital immediately contacted Riley Children's Hospital to have one of their ambulances available for transport to Indy if necessary. The baby, a little girl by the name of Karolina, was delivered early this morning but she was not breathing. They rushed her to Riley's where she is currently in ICU on a respirator. Brandy is still at CRH while Jonathan is at Riley with the baby. Please pray for Brandy, Jonathan & little baby Karolina. Dirk Rader (via Carson).

Larry & Janet Kaminsky: What a year!! Janet had a intestinal infection back in July that has had her on the down side for four months. Recovering from that, she followed up with cataract surgery in early November and then back surgery just before Thanksgiving. She is still recovering from that. We both got a good case of influenza-A 4 days before Christmas. I finally began to feel better three days after Christmas but Janet is still under the weather. We missed Christmas with the family this year for the first time. Even our son and his wife from Colorado were in town and we couldn't see them because we were highly contagious.

SRICF – 2015 Annual High Council Meeting – Louisville, KY

To Members of the SRICF, since the recent release of the Program for Masonic Week, we have received a number of inquiries about the plans of the Societas Rosicruciana in Civitatibus Foederatis. After several years of discussions, among the Officers and Chief Adepts, it has been decided that our Annual Meeting would be more centrally located and at a time less susceptible to inclement weather.

The High Council will meet on November 7, 2015 at the Brown Hotel in Louisville, KY. The RSKO (Royal Society of Knights Occidental) will have their annual Convivial, the night before on November 6, 2015 at the same location. Room rates will be $129.00 with special parking rates, and free shuttle service to and from the airport. Check out the Brown Hotel at www.brownhotel.com. Those of you who miss the elegance of the Hotel Washington are going to love this Hotel. Reservations may be made by calling 888-888-5252. Tell them you are with SRICF to receive our rate or on-line by going to:

Around the Encampment:

Holy Land Pilgrimage: Greetings, We now have our group of 30 Pilgrim Ministers set and two Knight Templar Servants (travel hosts). Our international flights have been confirmed and ticketed. We will be departing from JFK on EL AL Flight 008 at 11:50 PM on Monday, February 23, 2015. It is important that you arrive will ample time for check-in and security. It is suggested that you arrive at least 3 - 4 hours prior to overseas flight check in time (around 8:30 PM). Keep in mind that weather delays are possible from your point of departure. An early flight leaves you options. If you are delayed and miss our flight, you will miss at least one or more days of the pilgrimage in Israel. Come early, enjoy a latte, and bring a book, whatever. I will be at JFK around 3:30 PM that afternoon to be in place to greet you and give you any pre-check-in information. Our return flight to JFK is EL AL Flight 001, due to arrive at 6:00 AM on Thursday, March 5, 2015. Do not arrange your domestic flight to home close to this arrival time. Many factors can delay when you will be available. It is better to wait some extra hours at JFK than to be missing flights at this point in the trip. Your domestic flights are to be handled by your sponsoring state committee, your local Commandery of Knights Templar, or yourself (this is different from state to state). For clarification, contact the person who nominated you or the person who is your contact from your state. The Grand Encampment Committee does not arrange your domestic flights. Neither Emmett Mills nor I will be handling your domestic flights (unless you are from Ohio). We do suggest that these arrangements be made with Gate 1 Travel. This helps with the overall coordination of flight times and arrangements. Gate 1 Travel, Attn: T.J. Leigh, 1.800.682.3333 ext. 1264 FAX 215.886.2228 tleigh@gate1travel.com. I am going in for surgery this Thursday and will be off the radar for a few days. After that, you will receive frequent emails from me as the days and weeks pass. Please check your email regularly. Rev. Duane A.
