GRAND COMMANDERY KNIGHTS TEMPLAR OF INDIANA

Triennial as such and will have all Transportation, Registration fees and Lodging paid from the Triennial Fund referenced in Section 725.

Each Past Grand Commander who shall be in attendance at, and representing this Grand Commandery, is responsible for their own Registration Fees and Lodging at the Triennial, and shall be entitled to receive from the funds in the hands of the Grand Treasurer of this Grand Commandery a per diem as outlined in Section 725, also the further sum allowed by the IRS (Charitable Organization) per mile for each mile necessarily traveled by the most direct route from a place in Indiana going to and returning from such Conclaves. If the use of commercial transportation is used (flying, train, bus) will cover the cost of using "coach or economy", PROVIDED, that a past officer of the Grand Commandery, who is already a member of the Grand Encampment, acting as a proxy for an officer of the Grand Commandery to the Grand Encampment shall not receive dual payments for per diem and mileage for attending the Conclaves of the Grand Encampment as such proxy.

REPRESENTATIVES AT THE FUNERAL OF GRAND OFFICER OR PGC

SECTION 655: Upon the death of any Grand Officer or any Past Grand Commander of this Grand Jurisdiction, the Grand Commander may, when being informed of such death, appoint two Past Grand Commanders who, with himself, shall represent the Grand Commandery of Indiana at the funeral of such deceased Sir Knight, and upon filing with the Grand Recorder an itemized account of expenses incurred by such representatives, the Grand Recorder shall draw warrants on the Grand Treasurer for the respective amounts, payable to said representatives.

MEMBERSHIP DEVELOPMENT FUND

SECTION 660: Whereas voluntary contributions to the W.M.A. Club (Willard M. Avery Club) were received from individuals to help finance the 54th Triennial Conclave of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America convened at Indianapolis, Indiana, August 11-16, 1979:

Whereas the voluntary contributions were not needed to meet the expenses of the conclave as sufficient revenue was received from other sources:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that $13,321.68 of the W.M.A. Voluntary contributions, plus any accrued interest thereon, be transferred for the use of the Membership Committee, and $10,000.00 thereof be invested in a permanent fund to be known as the "W.M.A. Membership Development Reserve Fund" and the interest income derived therefrom be used only for membership development. (Adopted 1980) Be repealed:

And that the $10,000 permanent portion of the Membership development fund be transferred to the Grand Commandery Permanent Fund and included as part of that permanent un-expendable fund. And that any expendable funds in the Membership fund (the amount in excess of $10,000) be transferred to the general funds of the Grand Commandery. (Adopted August 2020)

PAST GRAND COMMANDER'S JEWEL

SECTION 675:

- (A) Each year at the Annual Stated Conclave of the Grand Commandery, the outgoing Grand Commander may be awarded a Past Grand Commander's jewel. The presentation of the jewel shall impress upon the recipient that the jewel is the property of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Indiana and upon the termination of his membership therein is to be returned to that organization. (April 2009)
- (B) Each recipient shall sign a statement that the jewel is to be returned to the Grand Commandery of Indiana, and his wife will also sign. Jewels presently in use (1988) may be placed in the same category by the Past Grand Commander signing the same statement. The recipient has the privilege and right to purchase the Past Grand Commander's jewel at cost at the time of issue.

OF INDIANA

FORM OF PAST GRAND COMMANDER'S JEWEL AGREEMENT

To the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Indiana:

According to the Indiana Laws of Templar Masonry, the Past Grand Commander's jewel issued to me remains the property of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Indiana and is to be returned to that organization upon the termination of my membership therein.

My wife and I both concur in this agreement and signify our acceptance to these terms by signing this agreement below.

Dated at __, Indiana, this _ day of __, 20__

And that it be also provided that all Past Grand Commanders completing their terms of office after 1994 be asked to sign revised agreements. (April 2009)

LIFE MEMBERSHIP PLAN

SECTION 680:

Whereby Section 680 of the Indiana Grand Commandery Laws refers to the Life Membership Plan {LIFE ANNUITY MEMBERSHIP PLAN} of Indiana Commanderies was initiated as part of our laws in 1991 and whereas the final burden to the Commanderies continue to grow, and whereas the number of new members has decreased.

Be it resolved that Section 680 of the Indiana Grand Commandery Law discontinue enrollments effective April 25, 2014.

- (A) NAME OF PLAN. The name of this plan shall be "Life Membership Plan" of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Indiana, hereinafter, sometimes referred to as the "plan."
- (B) QUALIFIED KNIGHT TEMPLAR MAY PARTICIPATE. Any Knight Templar in good standing whose dues are paid for the current year in a Commandery may become a participant in the plan. Such person is hereafter sometimes referred to as a "qualified Knight Templar".
- (C) ADMINISTRATION of the plan. The plan shall be administered by the Grand Trustees, in accordance with the provisions of the Grand Encampment and Indiana Statutes as a separate fund.
- (D) DETERMINATION OF PURCHASE PRICE. The purchase price shall be determined by multiplying the current Commandery dues times a factor, which is determined by the age of the qualified Knight Templar on December 31 of the year the application, is received by the Grand Recorder. The Commandery dues is defined as the amount of money collected yearly from each member of a Commandery, which includes a combination of the Commandery operating dues and the Grand Commandery per capita tax. The Commandery dues definition does not include special assessments for a Commandery. The Grand Commandery per capita tax will either include or exclude the $1.00 Eye Foundation assessment, depending upon whether or not the applicant is a Life Sponsor in the Eye Foundation.

a. (Revised & effective April 30, 1999)

- (E) PAYMENT OF PURCHASE PRICE. The purchase price of a Life Membership shall be paid in a single sum at the time of application.
- (F) REVISION OR DISCONTINUANCE OF PLAN BY GRAND COMMANDERY. The Grand Commandery of Indiana may revise the purchase price or other provisions of the plan, or it may discontinue the plan, provided however, the purchase price or other provisions may not be revised or the plan discontinued for any existing fully enrolled participant, if the plan is in effect in the Grand Commandery of Indiana except as hereinafter noted, and any such revision or discontinuance of adoption of the plan by the Grand Commandery shall only be effective after filing a resolution with the Grand Recorder 60 days prior to the Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery, 30 days written notice thereof by the Grand Recorder to each Constituent Commandery Recorder, and adoption at the Annual Conclave by three-fourths, affirmative vote of those delegates present.
- (G) APPLICATION BY OR FOR A QUALIFIED KNIGHT TEMPLAR. A qualified Knight Templar may purchase a Life Membership or any person or persons or any Commandery may purchase a Life Membership for a qualified Knight Templar, by submitting the following to the Commandery Recorder: A completed application, in duplicate, on a form prescribed by the Grand Trustees and by the required payment in full, as determined in Section d. The Commandery Recorder shall promptly transmit the duplicated application form, with the required payment, to the Grand Recorder.
- (H) EFFECTIVE DATE OF LIFE MEMBERSHIP. Upon receipt by the Grand Recorder of the copy of the duplicated application form and the required payment, then the applying Knight Templar shall become a participant in the plan through the Grand Commandery. The Life must be purchased and submitted to the Grand Recorder on or before November 30 in order for the plan to go into effect the following year.
- (I) CERTIFICATION OF LIFE MEMBERSHIP. Upon receipt of the full purchase price by the Grand Recorder, he shall issue a Certificate of Life Membership to the participant. Such certificate shall be signed by the Grand Commander, attested by the Grand Recorder under the seal of the Grand Commandery. The Grand Recorder shall forward such certificate to the Commandery Recorder for proper presentation.
- (J) DELIVERY OF PAYMENTS BY GRAND RECORDER TO GRAND TRUSTEES. The Grand Recorder will receive only fully paid applications. All payments which he is authorized to receive shall be promptly delivered to the Grand Trustees.
- (K) PAYMENT BY GRAND RECORDER. On payment of per capita to the Grand Commandery each year, after the year in which the participant became a member of the plan, the Grand Recorder shall rebate to the participant's Commandery the amount of the existing dues and assessments, as defined in Section (d). Once a qualified Knight Templar becomes a 50-year member of the Commandery, the Grand Recorder will stop payment of the existing dues to that Commandery from the Life Membership plan since the member's dues are automatically remitted. (April 2008)

- (L) PER CAPITA TAX OR DUES INCREASES OR DECREASES: Future increases or decreases in the Grand Commandery per capita tax or participant's Commandery operating dues shall have no effect upon the payments made by the Grand Trustees to the local Commandery. If the local Commandery dues have changed after the applicant became a life member, the Grand Trustees will pay the amount of current Commandery dues, not the amount of the Commandery dues when the application became effective.
- (M) REFUNDS DISCIPLINARY ACTION No refunds shall be made from the plan to any participant or to any other person, estate or any Commandery for any reason, as death, demit, expulsion, or suspension. No participant shall be exempt from disciplinary action as provided in the Indiana Statutes. In the event of the suspension or expulsion of a participant, the Grand Trustees shall discontinue to pay to the participant's Commandery any amounts which would have been paid had the participant not been suspended or expelled. Any participant who has been suspended and subsequently reinstated shall also have his Life Membership reinstated.
- (N) DUES CARDS On or before January 1 of each year, the Recorder of a participant's Commandery shall issue a regular dues card without any special designation to the participant with a full paid membership, as long as he is in good standing in his Commandery.
- (O) PLURAL MEMBERSHIP IN ANOTHER INDIANA COMMANDERY A qualified Knight Templar may purchase a Life Membership in any Commandery in which he holds regular membership, or he may purchase Life Membership in one Commandery and be a regular dues paying member in another Commandery.
- (P) TRANSFER OF LIFE MEMBERSHIP FROM COMMANDERY TO ANOTHER COMMANDERY Upon written notification of the qualified Knight Templar to the Grand Recorder, a Life Membership in one Commandery may be transferred to a Life Membership in another Indiana Commandery in the event that two or more Commanderies consolidate, the Life Membership of the participant shall be transferred to the Commandery whose charter remains in effect.
- (Q) SURRENDER OF CHARTER In the event of the surrender of a charter of a participant's Commandery, any amounts which would have been payable by the Grand Trustees to the participant's Commandery shall be paid to the Grand Commandery General Fund until the participant affiliates with another Indiana Commandery, after which date all future payments by the Grand Trustees will be made to the Commandery with which the participant has affiliated.
- (R) MEMBERSHIP IN A NON-INDIANA COMMANDERY If a participant holds or acquires a membership in a non-Indiana Commandery, no payments shall be made by the Grand Trustees from the fund to such nonIndiana Commandery.
- (S) GRAND TRUSTEES TO ACCOUNT It shall be the responsibility of the Grand Trustees to hold and administer such assets of the plan as may be transmitted to their keeping and to distribute earnings in accordance with provisions of the plan. The Grand Trustees shall maintain adequate records of the payments for each participant in the plan and may pay all necessary costs of such administration from earnings on assets held. Provided, also, that should excess plan earnings be insufficient, costs of administration shall be paid from general revenues of the Grand Commandery. The Grand Trustees are empowered to employ such persons or services as necessary for the administration of the plan without further approval from all standard accounting practices in the maintenance of the records of the plan, and the plan shall be audited annually by such outside accounting firm as may be approved by the Grand Commandery or the Executive Committee thereof. At the annual Conclave, the Grand Trustees shall submit a written report of their administration of the plan together with the audit report.

- (T) GRAND TRUSTEES TO INVEST Funds held by the Grand Trustees for the plan shall be invested so as to gain maximum return commensurate with absolute safety of principal and shall be limited to obligations of the United States Government or fully insured deposits of a commercial bank or savings and loan association domiciled in the State of Indiana.
- (U) GRAND TRUSTEES TO DISTRIBUTE EXCESS REVENUE In the event that the plan shall produce income in excess of the amounts actuarially necessary to meet projected plan obligations, the Grand Trustees may recommend to the Grand Commandery that amounts be distributed from the fund Provided, however, that such distributions shall be made only upon approval of the Grand Commandery at the Annual Conclave and provided further that an analysis to determine such excess funds shall be made and reported to the Grand Commandery at least every five years.
- (V) GRAND TRUSTEES TO PRESCRIBE RULES AND REGULATIONS The Grand Trustees may and shall prescribe such rules and regulations as shall be necessary or desirable for administration of the plan; provided that no such rules or regulations shall be in conflict or contrary to any express provision of the statutes, bylaws and regulations of the Grand Encampment, the Grand Commandery or civil law Such rules and regulations may be overridden only by two-thirds vote of official delegates at an Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery.
- (W) GRAND TRUSTEES MAY DELEGATE; The Grand Recorder shall have such authority and perform such duties with respect to the administration of the plan as are provided in the plan, and as may be delegated to him by the Grand Trustees, also, that nothing shall preclude the Grand Trustees from delegating both administration of the plan and investment of the plan assets to legally-chartered bank or trust company in a fiduciary capacity under the laws of the State of Indiana. (April 2013)

ANNUAL RETURNS OF COMMANDERIES

SECTION 841: Each Recorder shall on or before the first day of February pay the fees, dues, and other billings due the Grand Commandery for such year. Each Constituent Recorder shall also file prior to March first a Financial Report for the preceding year with the Grand Recorder.

Failure to file such form or pay fees, dues and other billing due the Grand Commandery at the proper time shall result in a fine to the Commandery of $2.00 for each day the report is late. The fines due and payable because of delinquent filings shall be billed and paid at the end of the year along with other fees and dues. (April 28, 2017)

FAILURE TO PAY DUES TO GRAND COMMANDERY

SECTION 842: Should any Commandery fail or refuse to pay the sums specified and at the time specified in the foregoing statute, to the Grand Commandery, for its use, the same shall be reported by the Grand Recorder to the next Annual Conclave, and the charter of such Commandery may be arrested, or such other discipline or penalty shall be imposed as the Grand Commandery shall determine proper and expedient No representative from such Commandery shall be permitted to take his seat as a member of the Grand Commandery until the return to be made by the said Commandery has been regular made out and filed, and the annual dues shall have been paid, except by the consent of the Grand Commandery on a vote taken, and should such delinquency continue for a space one year, the charter, funds and other property of such delinquent Commandery shall become forfeited to the Grand Commandery.

INSPECTION OF COMMANDERIES APPOINTMENT AND DUTIES OF INSPECTION

SECTION 851: Commanderies of this Grand Jurisdiction shall be inspected annually under the direction and control of the Grand Commander, who may, subject to the approval of the Committee on Jurisprudence, appoint one competent Sir Knight to make some or all of the inspections at a salary, which shall be set in the Annual Budget of this Grand Commandery, which shall include his expenses, or the Grand Commander may assign a Grand Officer to each of the Battalions as now constituted and established, to make such inspections, who shall receive his actual expenses only. The duties of such inspector shall be to inspect, correct errors and give such instruction and information immediately after inspection, as the inspector may deem necessary and in accordance with the interpretation of the ritual and tactics as provided by the Grand Encampment. Such inspector shall make a report to the Grand Commander immediately after each inspection; provided that in the event any inspector shall be unable to perform his duties as such, then the Grand Commander shall appoint another competent Knight Templar his stead as such inspector. (April 2006)
It shall be the duty of each Commander to assemble his Commandery for inspection at such time as may be designated by the inspector. It is further provided that the Grand Commander may from time to time call such school or schools of instruction as may seem fit and proper and require the attendance of such inspectors thereat.

TIME FOR INSPECTION

SECTION 852: The Grand Commander shall annually fix the time for holding inspections in each Commandery.

SUMMONS

SECTION 895: No Summons issued to the members of a Commandery shall be considered a "due Summons," except such as require such members to appear to transact the business and work of the Commandery at a specified time within the Asylum of the Commandery.

TEMPLAR COMMUNICATIONS INTERDICTED

SECTION 896: All Templar communications are interdicted between any Commandery working under the jurisdiction of this Grand Commandery and any Commandery or member of such that may be formed, opened or holden in any State, District or Territory without a Dispensation or Charter from the Grand Commandery having jurisdiction or from the Grand Encampment of the United States.

APPEAL

SECTION 897: Should any member of a Commandery or a Sir Knight, against whom a decision may be made, feel himself aggrieved by any such decision, he may appeal therefrom to this Grand Commandery, at any time within one year from the date of such decision, and upon his giving notice in writing to the Commandery of his intention to take such appeal, it shall be the duty of the Recorder of such Commandery to immediately make out and forward to the Grand Recorder a full and complete transcript of the entire matter in the case in which the appeal is taken. Such appeal does not suspend the judgment appealed from.

UNIFORM

SECTION 900: The purchase of a uniform by a candidate for the orders is optional. Every officer of all Constituent Commanderies shall be required to possess, at the time of his installation, a dress uniform or ceremonial robe as prescribed for his rank and to retain such uniform while holding his office. No Commandery shall appear in public unless clothed in the uniform prescribed by the Grand Commandery of Indiana, except for attendance at religious services or funerals.

INTENTION CLAUSE

SECTION 901: It is the intention that this section shall void the use of the "old style high collar uniform" except for those Sir Knights who own and utilize such uniform. No candidate for the Orders who is Knighted after April 1983, shall be knighted in, or shall thereafter appear in such style uniform. The long coat with lapel collar may continue to be worn. It is the further intention of this section that the coat as described in Section 910 is now and shall hereafter be the style of coat to be purchased and worn by Indiana Templars. (April 2006)

SECTION 902: The Standard Templar Uniform for Knight Templar of Indiana is as follows:

COAT

SECTION 910: The Templar Dress Coat shall be three (black metal of cross and crown) button, double breasted coat, to close with three buttons of the same design, and to be of black clothing material (a ten to ten and 1/2 ounce tropical of 45% wool and 55% dacron, is recommended). The coat shall have no outside pockets, but may have two lower straight flaps, no openings, stitched on outside edges to give appearances of pockets and a left breast pocket welt one inch wide and six inches long to provide a space of fastening a Commandery jewel of office and/or other permitted Commandery jewels. It shall have two inside breast pockets, one on each side. At the wearer's left side under the simulated pocket flap if used, [on in the same location,] a four-inch horizontal opening shall be provided to allow sword belt chains or slings to be worn on a concealed belt or trouser waist belts. Coat to be 100% lined with black lining material, sleeve linings to be either plain black or white lining material, with a shield in each sleeve, and armholes piped with lining material. Edges to be single stitched. Length of coat shall be one-inch below wearer's crotch line. The coat is to have roll collar with peak lapels, three inches wide at the peak. On the point of the collar, one-half inch above the lapel seam and one-half inch from outside edge of collar shall be a one-inch cross of appropriate rank.

The sleeves to be finished with three [black buttons of cross and crown design on each cuff and with a cross 1 1/2 to 2 inches in size appropriate to rank in the center of the sleeve measured from side to side. All crosses worn on the Templar Uniform may be of bullion, nylon, or metallic composition.

Either style straps or sling will have snaps according to rank (gold or silver).

SECTION 912: Optional State of Indiana abbreviations and Constituent Commandery numeric lapel insignia designations may be worn on the respective lapels of the Templar Dress Coat one and one-half inches below the point intersecting the lapel peak (notch) and collar seam, and one and one-half inches in from the outside edge of the lapels, there shall be two metal bars with tie-tack fasteners arranged as follows:

For Grand Commandery Officers and Past Grand Commanders each lapel shall have a gold colored two-pronged metal bar with the letters "IN" (abbreviation for Indiana) one-half inch high. In placing the lapel insignia, the point one and one-half inches below the peak and one and one-half inches from the outside edges of the lapel, represents the actual center (vertically and horizontally) for positioning the respective bars. The optional bars are to be pinned on a straight horizontal line with the bottom lines of the bars parallel with the ground, not with the edges parallel to the edges of lapels.

For all members of a Constituent Commandery the right lapel shall have a gold colored two-pronged metal bar with the letters "IN" (abbreviation for Indiana) one-half inch high, silver colored for Sir Knights below the rank of Commander, and gold colored for the rank of Commander and Past Commander. The left lapel shall have twopronged metal bar with the appropriate Commandery number (one or two digits), one-half inch high, silver colored for Sir

Knights below the rank of Commander, and gold colored for the rank of Commander and Past Commander. See section above for positioning instructions of the optional lapel insignia bars.

IDENTIFICATION BAR

SECTION 914: For Grand, Past Grand, or Constituent Commandery Officers and Sir Knights, an optional name identification bar may be worn on the Standard Templar Uniform of Indiana.

The name bar shall be worn on the right breast of the Standard Templar Uniform of Indiana, centered and horizontal with the welt of the left breast. (1993)

MEMBERSHIP AWARD CORDONS

SECTION 916: Any Knight Templar who, as a first line signer recommending favorable action, shall have after May 2, 1980, secured and presented petitions of others for membership in one or more Commanderies in Indiana of which he is then a member, a new member for such Commandery; shall be eligible to receive:

Sir Knights obtaining One-Hundred and three (103) or more petitions may receive a white cord and thus begin to progress again through the award sequence above while retaining the black and white cord which in such cases shall still be worn on the left shoulder but over and outside the sleeve.

The wearing of the Membership Award is optional; but if worn, it shall be worn only on a Commandery uniform. Only one such award shall be worn at any time by any Sir Knight; and that one is the latest Shoulder Cord that has been presented to him.

JEWELS

SECTION 920: Only Templar jewels are to be worn on the Templar Uniform. Meritorious Jewels, Badge of Commanderies and Malta Jewel shall be worn on the left breast welt, placed in the order named and spaced 1/8" apart. If the Malta Jewell only is worn, it shall be centered horizontally on the welt. The top of jewel/jewels are to be even with the top edge of the welt. Jewels of office may also be worn suspended from a black neck cord or silver chain. United States Armed Forces Service Bar as applicable to active military veterans shall be centered above jewels worn. (April 2007) Sir Knights who have been awarded the Distinguished Service Award may wear a service bar of white bearing a gold star thereon in lieu of the approved jewel. If worn, it shall be centered above jewels worn. If worn in conjunction with the United States Armed Forces Service Bar, then the two service bars shall be centered above jewels worn. (1992)

Provided also, that the jewels of the officers and Past Grand Commanders of this Grand Commandery may be worn on a collar of a design as may from time to time be approved, while appearing in civilian dress and representing the office to which the wearer had been duly elected or appointed. (April 2019)

Provided also, that the Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Indiana, may wear as a part of his official uniform, the double red cordon for the Grand Commander's Jewel.

The Jewel of the Office of Past Grand Commander may be worn suspended from a heavy, royal purple silk cord with swivel; the cord to have a tassel at the ends to be held together by sliding holders with rosette; the cord to have a total length of sixty-four inches. (April 2022)

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

SECTION 920 (a) (Resolution No.3.)

In order to promote certain advantages for the welfare of the Grand Commandery in general, the Constituent Commanderies and Sir Knights in particular, there is hereby submitted to this Grand Commandery Conclave a proposal to establish a "DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD" for the Grand Commandery of Indiana.

(A) The award should be presented only in consideration of loyal and devoted service to the Commandery.

GRAND COMMANDERY KNIGHTS TEMPLAR OF INDIANA

- (B) That it should be considered as the highest individual award that can be given by the Grand Commandery, in order that the recipient of the award can feel highly honored in receiving it Therefore great care should be exercised in the selection of the nominees for the award.
- (C) It should not be considered as a steppingstone to receiving the Knight Templar Cross of Honor awarded by the Grand Encampment nor should it be considered as a deterrent or substitute for the Knight Templar Cross of Honor. The DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD is under the jurisdiction of the Grand Commandery while the Knight Templar Cross of Honor is under the jurisdiction of the Most Eminent Grand Master and the Grand Encampment.
- (D) The number of awards should be limited in order that it will not be common and detract from its prestige and significance.

Be it resolved that an award to be known as the "DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD" to be established by the Grand Commandery of Indiana to be conferred upon members, who, by distinguished service to Templary are worthy of such an award the recipients to be selected and the award to be presented as follows:

- (A) The recipient must be a member of a Commandery in good standing.
- (B) The Eminent Commander, Generalissimo and Captain General, will together, present the nomination from members suggested by their Commandery. The nominations shall be on forms to be provided by the Grand Recorder Said nominations shall be forwarded to the Grand Commander no later than March 1 of each year The Grand Commander may appoint the Grand Recorder and the Special Activities Committee to assist him in the selection of the recipients. (April 2013)
- (C) Those chosen to receive the award shall be made known by the Grand Commander at the Grand Commandery Conclave each year. The names of the nominees to receive the award shall be kept, strictly confidential until announced by the Grand Commander. (April 2013)
- (D) The award shall be limited to two (2) members from each Commandery in Indiana each year following the adoption of this resolution.
- (E) The award is to be presented to the recipient by the Eminent Commander of the recipient's Commandery. Such presentation shall be at a Stated or special called conclave. It is strongly recommended that such presentation conclave be opened to the public, visitors and friends and be performed with proper ceremony and Sir Knights present wearing uniforms.
- (F) The award shall consist of a jewel engraved with the words "DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD," Grand Commandery of Indiana, with the name of the recipient and date of award engraved on the back, In addition thereto, an appropriate certificate of the award shall be prepared, signed by the Grand Commander and attested to by the Grand Recorder In addition, the signature of the Eminent Commander and attested to by the signature of the Recorder of the Commandery. (April 2013)
- (G) The design of the jewel and certificate recommended by the Special Activities Committee shall be the same in Commanderies and under the control of the Grand Commandery of Indiana. Sir Knights who have been awarded the Distinguished Service Award may wear a service bar of white bearing a gold star thereon in lieu of the approved jewel. (Adopted 1992)
- (H) The cost of the jewel, certificate and engraving shall be borne by the Commandery of which the recipient is a member (Adopted 1977)

GRAND COMMANDERY KNIGHTS TEMPLAR OF INDIANA

- (I) The Grand Commander shall have the prerogative to award no more than five (5) Distinguished Service Awards during his term to Templars who have rendered outstanding service to him personally or to the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Indiana. These awards shall have no bearing or effect upon nomination quotas of individual Commanderies and the cost shall be born out of personal funds or funds allocated to the Grand Commander. (Adopted 1978) (April 2013)

Addendum A:

In order to recognize service given to the Grand Commandery or constituent Commanderies of Indiana, above that which can be expected of a non-member, this addendum to resolution No.3 is hereby submitted to this Grand Commandery Conclave to establish a "Distinguished Service Award for Friends of the Grand Commandery."

The award may be given to ladies or non-Knights Templar who have performed outstanding service to our fraternity. The jewel shall be of two types depending if the recipient is male or female.

- (A) The Eminent Commander, Generalissimo and Captain General, will together, present the nomination from members suggested by their Commandery. The nominations shall be on forms to be provided by the Grand Recorder. Said nominations shall be forwarded to the Grand Commander no later than March 1 of each year. The Grand Commander may appoint the Grand Recorder and the Special Activities Committee to assist him in the selection of the recipients. (April 2013)
- (B) Those chosen to receive the award shall be made known by the Grand Commander at the Grand Commandery Conclave each year. The names of the nominees to receive the award shall be kept strictly confidential until announced by the Grand Commander. (April 2013)
- (C) The award shall be limited to one (2) from each Commandery in Indiana, each year, following the adoption of this addendum.
- (D) The award is to be presented to the recipient by the Eminent Commander of the nominating Commandery. Such presentation to be at a called conclave. Such presentation shall be open to the public, visitors and friends, and be performed with proper ceremony; with Sir Knights wearing Templar uniforms.
- (E) The award, if presented to a lady, will consist of a jewel with suitable fastener on back to be worn by a Lady. If the award is to be presented to a male, the award will be a lapel pin. In addition, thereto, an appropriate certificate of the award shall be prepared and signed by the Grand Commander and attested to by the Grand Recorder. Also, the signature of the Eminent Commander and attested to by the Recorder of the Commandery. The jewel and certificate shall be the same for all Commanderies and under the control of the Grand Commandery of Indiana. (April 2013)
- (F) The cost of the jewel and certificate shall be borne by each Commandery presenting a nomination. The Grand Recorder will bill each Commandery for the cost. (Adopted 1998)

MASONIC SERVICE AWARD RESOLUTION

SECTION 920 (b) (RESOLUTION No.8) the Masonic Service Award, shall be similar in size and design to the United States Armed Forces Service Bar. It will have four vertical colored stripes; blue, red, purple and white, in that order from the wearers left to right, thus placing the white stripe closest to the center of the coat. (April 2007).

The Masonic Service Award may be worn to signify diligent and dedicated support and service to Templary, together with similar support and service to those York Rite bodies prerequisite and necessary to Templar Membership. (Adopted 2001)

PAST COMMANDER'S ASSOCIATION JEWEL

SECTION 920 (c): (RESOLUTION 9) the accepted member's jewel or past knight commander's jewel of that organization is authorized to be worn on the standard dress uniform. (Adopted 2001)

SECTION 920 (d) (RESOLUTION No. 10) WEARING OF JEWELS

A person may not simultaneously wear more jewels than can be fit in a single line in the appropriate place on the standard Templar Uniform. For many Sir Knights this entails choosing which jewels to wear or omit. Any jewels that are worn should be in the following sequence from the wearer's right to left. The wearer's right is the edge closest to the center of the uniform front.

Centered above the jewels, a Sir Knight may wear approved service bars. Only three bars may be worn in a row, but multiple rows are permitted. Service bars should be worn in the order listed from the top rows down and from the wearer's right to left. Thus, if multiple rows are worn, the highest ranked bars are in the top row.
